

RUSSIA FORMALLY ENDS RELATIONS WITH CHINA

Soviet Note Declares All Hope to Preserve Peace Abandoned; Blame Put on Nanking

had been written before the entire text of the Russian ultimatum had arrived at Nanking but that enough had come to make the general tenor of the communication understandable.

NANKING REPLY

An announcement in China the Nanking reply contained three points which the Nationalists considered of special importance. The first was that Chu Zao Yang, former ambassador at Moscow, soon will leave Nanking for the Soviet capital to discuss all questions between the two governments. The second was a demand that Russia release all Chinese citizens who were imprisoned within Soviet territory and the third was a demand for adequate protection of Chinese nationals in Russia.

The Nanking note also contained a promise to reply more fully to the Russian communication as soon as the full text of the latter became available.

While this described this note as "conciliatory" and while that estimation is echoed from Tokyo, the popular opinion of it is reflected by the fact that the Chinese Communist side in Moscow. These were especially violent on Tuesday night.

BUT LITTLE STIR

Aside from this evidence of hostility, there was little to indicate the imminence of a break. An indirect report by way of Riga, Latvia, said that L. M. Karakhan, Vice-Communist for Foreign Affairs, had handed a note to the Chinese representative at Moscow which expressed surprise at the vagueness of the Nanking reply to the ultimatum. This report also said that

M. Karakhan refused to take any responsibility on behalf of his government for asserted activities of Communist propagandists in Manchuria.

It was this asserted activity in spreading Soviet doctrine that the Chinese blamed for the entire situation. They declared that Russian agents had violated a treaty made in 1924 which contained this clause: "The governments of the two contracting parties mutually pledge themselves not to permit within their respective territories the existence or activities of any organizations or groups whose aim is to contend by acts of violence against the government of either contracting party."

"The governments of the two contracting parties further pledge themselves not to engage in propaganda directed against the political and social systems of either contracting party."

MANCHURIA RAIDS

On May 27 a number of raids were made by Manchurian authorities on the Russian consulates in Harbin and other cities. Chinese troops also raided the Russian consulate in Manchuria, reported to Chiang Kai-shek, nominal head of the Nationalist government, and to C. T. Wang, Foreign Minister, that these raids had uncovered indisputable evidence that Russians in Manchuria were violating the anti-propaganda clause of the 1924 treaty.

In carrying out the seizure of the Chinese Eastern Railway, Nanking spokesmen said that China was determined to stamp out Communism and especially to do away with the undercover spread of doctrines aimed at weakening the Nationalist movement. They declared that they were actually only by means of self-preservation in taking this course and as late as Tuesday evening, last, one of those spokesmen declared that the government was determined to hold that which it possessed. He said China will resist every Soviet threat of retaliation.

TROOPS ON MOVE

Ever since the situation became acute there have been closely reported reports of troop movements on both sides of the Manchurian-Siberian frontier. It has been related that the Chinese were moving some of their best equipped troops to that border and that these troops are being reinforced with armed "White Russians."

From Nanking sources similar reports have told of the gathering of Soviet forces on the Siberian side, together with volunteers made up of Mongolian tribesmen offered by Chinese as well as Russians especially trained by Moscow for service in the Far East.

Neither side has revealed specific numbers or stations for its own forces, although each has issued statements purporting to reveal the disposition of the other's soldiery. Russian territory runs around three sides of Manchuria on the west, north and east. The field of military operations, if the situation comes to that stage is likely to be along the Argun River, which forms the northeastern boundary. The Chinese Eastern Railway crosses the border just west of the point where this river becomes an entirely Manchurian stream. The principal station at present crossing are Manchuria on the Chinese side and Siberia on the Siberian side.

RUSSIA-CHINA WAR MIGHT INVOLVE 25,000,000 MEN

By the Associated Press
Should the present disagreement between Russia and China go to extremes there will be brought into conflict more than one-fourth of the estimated population of the world, and about 1 per cent of the world's area.

The two can employ at once armies aggregating more than 25,000,000 men, with reserves of nearly 22,000,000 men, according to best available data. Reliable figures are lacking in both cases, however.

The latest available statistics for the two republics (admittedly estimated even when derived from official sources) are:
Population—China, 400,000,000; Russia, 147,013,000. Area—China, 4,377,170 square miles; Russia, 8,144,228 square miles. Army—China, active, 1,500,000; Russia, 600,000. Un-equipped reserves—China, 22,000,000; Russia, 1,777,000.

NATIONALISTS TO RESIST: HIDDEN POWER'S HAND SEEN

NANKING (China) July 17. (AP)—A member of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang, which is the political party of the Nationalist government, told newspaper men this afternoon that the government will resist to the very end any Russian threats growing out of the taking over of the Chinese Eastern Railway in Manchuria. He said there were alarming rumors respecting military preparations by the Soviet government, but the Nationalists are determined to hold what they now possess in Manchuria.

The same spokesman also said a

BATHERS HAVE TOO MUCH ON!

Court Fines Two Men for Frolicking in Water With All Their Clothes

EVANSTON (Ill.) July 17. (AP)—A big fellow, D. B. Morris, and a little one, Frank Bul, were fined by Magistrate Franklin yesterday for going in bathing with too many clothes on.

Police men had come upon the two gamboling in Lake Michigan. They said the big fellow was throwing the little fellow around in the water. The big fellow pooh-poohed this. He said the little fellow had been drinking and that the stunt of ducking him in the lake was for purposes of sobriety.

The court decided, however, that regular dress was unbecoming under the circumstances.

certain foreign power, on the pretext of protecting its existing rights in Manchuria, reported as planning to utilize the situation for an expansion of its interests in that territory. He emphasized that this is only a rumor and he expressed the hope that it will prove unfounded.

In this connection it is recalled that President Chiang Kai-shek reported to have held a gathering of Kuomintang leaders yesterday that the taking over of the Chinese Eastern Railway is only a first stage of the Russian plan to force Russia. He is quoted as having added:

"After this first stage we will go further. The imperialist powers are greatly excited over our coup against the Russians and fear that their interests may be involved. But so long as we China are united, we need not fear oppression from the outside."

RUSSIANS IN MANCHURIA STILL HOPE FOR AMITY

TOKYO, July 17. (AP)—Japanese news agency dispatches from Harbin, Manchuria, today said the Russian officials remaining at their posts there hoped the Nanking note in reply to Moscow had opened the way for negotiations over the Manchurian situation.

The Nationalist government's note, it failed, however, to satisfy the Russian demand for cancellation of the seizure of the Chinese Eastern Railway and of the ultimatum order. Russian officials feared the commission might obligate Russia to take stronger measures.

Manchurian authorities dispatched two troops from Harbin today to Pogranichnaya, on the Siberian-Manchurian frontier, despite the more conciliatory attitude displayed in the Nanking note.

A Manchurian dispatch to headquarters of the Chinese Eastern said the international train from Harbin failed to make its usual connection with the Russian train at Manchuli and that the international express service was thus temporarily suspended.

Chang Hsueh-Liang, Governor of Manchuria, has named Chang Tso-Hsiang commander of the Chinese frontier armies and Wan Fulin, vice-commander.

The arrival at Mukden is said to be feverishly producing munitions. The Chinese authorities seized the Mukden office of the Chinese Eastern Railway Trade Bureau, hitherto controlled by the Russians, and dismissed the Russian manager.

SIBERIAN TROOP MOVEMENTS ASSUME WARLIKE SCALE

HARBIN (Manchuria) July 17. (AP)—Troop movements in Siberia have been on a semi-warlike scale for some weeks, according to reports reaching Harbin by neutral observers.

The Russians canceled all leaves of absence in the military district of Siberia weeks ago and began to move soldiers toward various important strategic points along the Manchurian frontier.

Observers say the Russians have been paying particular attention to the organization of Mongolians into regular troops under Russian officers.

One of the largest concentrations of Russian troops is said to be near Urga, consisting chiefly of members of the Young Men's Communist Association of a variety of races. There were cavalry and infantry units and some artillery there.

The organization of the Urga district began several months ago after the arrival of sixty-five graduates of the Novosibirsk propaganda school.

CHINESE TROOPS REPORTED ADVANCING NORTHWARD
PEKING (China) July 17. (AP)—Dispatches from Mukden, Manchuria, to the Chinese newspaper Shing-tai state that 20,000 Chinese troops have started northward. No other details are given.

Japanese press dispatches from Harbin say that the appearance of 2000 Russian troops at Pogranichnaya on the Siberian-Manchurian frontier has caused consternation all along the eastern branch of the Chinese Eastern Railway.

The dispatches, which were not confirmed from any other sources, said that "war clouds are rapidly thickening."

Gen. Chang Tso-Hsiang, chief of the Kirin provincial government, is reported to have been ordered to Harbin immediately. Several armored cars are said to have been dispatched by the Chinese in the direction of Pogranichnaya.

CAPITAL STILL HAS PEACE HOPE

But Washington Confesses Situation Grave

White House Reported as Watching Events

Borah Expresses Wish That Conflict be Averted

WASHINGTON, July 17. (AP)—Severance of relations with China by Soviet Russia was viewed in Washington diplomatic circles to-night with apprehension but with the conviction that it did not necessarily preclude war.

The situation is generally accepted as a serious one that might easily assume alarming proportions and rumors that Soviet troops had attempted to cross into China are held to be an indication of the grave danger.

Conservative quarters saw in the break the natural act on the part of the Soviet government to protect its rights in the ultimatum and to carry with it the threat of war despite the tone of the white message.

WHITE HOUSE SILENT

Official comments are not forthcoming from either the White House or the State Department, but it is known that close attention is being given to the developments and that the aftermath of Russia's action will be anxiously awaited.

President Hoover's wish has been expressed not only by the possible grave consequences but also by an intimate knowledge of places and conditions involved. He gained this through his years of work and his experience in Manchuria as a mining engineer.

Meanwhile, Chairman Borah of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and an outstanding advocate of extensive trade with the United States, expressed hope that a conflict might yet be avoided.

"I hope," he said, "that they will find a way to adjust their difficulties without actual conflict and I believe they will."

PRECEDENT CITED

It was pointed out in support of the belief that warfare need not be the direct result of the break in relations that after the Communists seized power in 1927 in which a Soviet vice-consul was killed the Moscow government withdrew its ambassador from Peking (Peking) and Moscow was forced to have the considered action to be a break in diplomatic relations. Despite this, however, it was cited tonight that no serious steps were taken by the Soviet government.

The threat of war brings the first test of the Kellogg antiwar treaty to which both Russia and China have adhered together with sixty-four other nations.

When the treaty renouncing war as an instrument of policy was ratified by the American Senate with the Russian ratification as to whether a violation of the treaty by one or two nations will force the other adhering nations to join against them. It is freely predicted here, however, that the other nations will not be drawn into a possible conflict by virtue of the treaty.

ESTATE VALUABLE

Mrs. Wolfkill and her two brothers inherited an estate of $400,000 from their father, John Wolfkill, who died in Pasadena in 1913. The value of the estate is said to have increased greatly since his death. John Wolfkill also owned the Rancho San Jose De Buena Vista, tract west of Beverly Hills that has since been subdivided into one of the finest residential districts of Los Angeles.

The Wolfkill ranch in Solano county is one of the most famous and most extensive holdings in California, and the family has been identified with the history of the section since the days "before the gringo came."

Mrs. Wolfkill's grandfather, John Wolfkill, was the first white settler in the Solano Valley, taking up four sections. These are practically intact today, and extend from near Suisun through the Solano Valley and into Gordon Valley.

LIFE LOSES CHARM FOR RICH MAN

Wealthy Pasadena, Ill. and Lonely, Seeks Death; Body Found in Garage

REDLANDS, July 17. (AP)—The body of William Henry Cox, 50 years of age, reputedly wealthy property owner of Pasadena, and this city, was found in a garage on his estate, "Villa Bonita," here tonight. A note near the body indicated the man had committed suicide.

The note was dated the 16th and said: "I am tired and should like to be discovered no one need be questioned as he was ill and lonely. A postscript dated the 12th said: 'This is the end—peace.'"

The body was found seated in an automobile behind the locked doors of the garage. A rubber hose ran from the exhaust pipe of the car to the driver's seat and the machine's gasoline tank was dry. Cox was last seen alive Monday.

A will found in the pocket of the man's coat left his estate equally to Mrs. John M. Martin of Dallas, Tex., a sister, and Mrs. James A. Fahy, Sr., of Nashville, Tenn. The women were designated as joint executrices and the document stated they should serve without bond.

Cox came here five years ago with his wife, who died last year in Phoenix, Ariz., and had no known friends. Police said they were convinced Cox had committed suicide, but were investigating the case preparatory to an inquest.

St. Louis Robin Still Bobbin' for Air Mark

ST. LOUIS, July 17. (AP)—The St. Louis Robin, in the air 110 hours at 9:17 o'clock tonight, was cruising over Parks Airport in East St. Louis while its sister ship, the Missouri Robin, spent its first night above Lambert-St. Louis Field. The latter craft started its flight at 10:31 a.m. today.

Both planes were sent aloft to test a new air-cooled motor and are expected to fly above the local fields as long as plane and engine will carry on.

Dock Destroyed in Seattle Fire; Six Men Injured

SEATTLE, July 17. (AP)—In Seattle's largest waterfront fire since 1914, the Union Pacific dock was practically destroyed late today with damages estimated at $1,000,000. Six injured firemen are recovering from burns and suffocation at the Providence Hospital.

The fire started beneath the flooring on the bay end of the dock.

The steamship Mauna Ala, loading at the pier when the blaze started, caught fire but was quickly backed into the bay and the blaze put out.

PASADENA LEGION HELD AS RESERVES

PASADENA, July 17. (Exclusive)—With the most serious forest fire of the season roaring up Keller Peak above Redlands today, 250 men and six truckloads of equipment are being rushed to the scene of the conflagration from this city, which, because of the location here of the Angeles National Forest headquarters, has become the base of supplies for the fire-fighting army, now numbering more than 1000 men.

Members of the local American Legion post emergency organization are being held in readiness to cooperate with the United States Forest Service in curbing the menace, according to Adjt. Robert M. McCurdy. Two local Legionnaires, Keaton Arnett and Daniel Shea, were sent to the fire line to act as camp bosses and to determine how many of their comrades could be used to advantage.

Louis Oreller and P. A. Parkhurst of the City Water Department also were sent to the scene.

Chief Dispatcher M. H. Davis of the local Angeles Forest headquarters, described the situation as the most critical since the disastrous "seven fires" period last October.

The humidity dropped to 4 degrees last night, according to reports from the San Gabriel Forest look-out. "This means," said Davis, "that there is practically no moisture in the air over the forests and that the danger cannot be overestimated."

FIREMEN INJURED IN PASADENA BLAZE

PASADENA, July 17. (Exclusive)—Fire today swept the east bank of the Arroyo Seco, burning several firemen, including Fire Chief Ernest P. Coop, and throwing up embers which menaced Pasadena's famous "wall of millions." After more than two hours the fire was controlled, although firemen tonight are on guard at various points against any outbreaks which might be started by brands from the blaze.

The area burned over includes three acres on the east bank of the Arroyo Seco between the Colorado street bridge and Brookside. Two old park sheds and two greenhouses were destroyed.

THE "turning point" of health usually at 40, says medical men, is the age when wear and tear of life begins to take its toll unless you begin to fight it.

Thus "Build health between 15 and 40" is sound advice if father should give his son.

One of the most prevalent to guard against is kidney break. Over half of men and women are afflicted in some degree. The doctors give us this:

Kidneys excrete 75% of poisons from the body, much in two continents. Through constantly carrying on, kidney congestion occurs; brain, lungs, and stomach which should be thrown back into the system are the forerunner of more serious illness.

One of the most important points the doctors know is a pure, white, drink six glasses of Purita daily and between meals.

First—it dilutes poisonous wastes and washes it away.

Second—because of the absence of Purita, it leaves no deposit, but rather to congestion of kidneys.

Thus thousands after 40, on medical advice, are drinking Purita daily.

What the Father of 40

advises
his Son
of 15

"The 'mating point' of health comes usually at 40, says medical science; the age when wear and tear of life begins to take its toll unless you've fought against it.

There's build health between the ages of 15 and 40" is sound advice that every father should give his son.

One of the most prevalent ailments to guard against is kidney break down. One half of men and women past 40 are afflicted in some degree. The reason given is this:

Kidneys excrete 75% of poisonous waste from the body, much in too concentrated form. Through constantly carrying this excessive load, congestion occurs; break down occurs and poisons which should be eliminated are thrown back into the system. This is the cause of most serious ills.

One of the most important preventives of kidney trouble is a pure, mineral-free water. Drink the Puritas daily, with between meals.

Kidneys dilute poisonous waste, disintegrating it away.

Because of the absence of minerals in Puritas, it leaves no deposits to add to the congestion of kidneys.

After 40, on emipent medical advice, use drinking Puritas for health protection. And advising their children to drink it to build up bodies for the important years to come.

Through scientific distillation, Puritas is mineral-free, impurity-free. It is water in its purest state. You'll like its wholesome flavor; a distinctive taste, different from ordinary water, that you'll enjoy increasingly.

STATEMENT ISSUED

In a statement just issued, the institute for the study of law said: "It is evident that the approach to the great and almost uncharted area of legal research must be made with care and foresight. The members of the faculty are fully conscious of this. Accordingly, they have expressly limited the scope of their initial program to proposals which have the three essential requisites of promising intrinsically valuable results; of being capable of accomplishment at the present time; and of being of such character as will facilitate the future expansion which is desirable and necessary."

Members of the faculty of the institute are: Dr. Walter Wheeler Cook, formerly professor of law at Yale University; Dr. Leon Carroll Marshall, formerly director of economics and business at the University of Chicago; Dr. Herman Oliphant, formerly professor of law at Columbia University; and Dr. Hessel Edward Yntema, formerly professor of comparative jurisprudence at Columbia University.

Formally established in June, 1928, the institute now plans as far-reaching and important a program of research in human affairs as any medical school, back in 1909, had before it in solving human ailments.

PURPOSE EXPLAINED

Society, including the broad area of law, government, political science, philosophy and ethics, long has been the province of the lawyer, down by myopic veneration for past practices and the institute's effort is one of the first scientific and experimental attempts to supplement the traditional methods of research and remedial.

"The purpose of the institute," Dr. F. J. Goodnow, president emeritus of the University of California, said in the study of law as it is and as it ought to be—the study of law in its whole social setting.

To advance society, which is pictured as a ship, Van Winkle awakes after a century and bound down by tradition and prejudice to age-old methods, he really is the march of science, the whole human scene will be laid out on the laboratory tables.

RESEARCH NEEDED

In addition to a scientific analysis of the basic functions of law and of the development of the legal system, the program includes the training of high-grade personnel to form a "community of scholars," and adoption of strictly objective scientific method and technique.

"Any final judgment concerning the most promising areas of study from the point of view of the human effects of law," the faculty believes, "may well await further investigation, but even at the present conference may be placed in the current, widespread, persistent and informed opinion that research is needed in such matters as the cost and delay of litigation, the defects in legislative policies and practices, the defective recording and discipline of the bar, the cultural lag of social institutions, including law, and the prevention of disease in our social relationships."

LONDON, July 17. (AP)—The Earl of Derby, famous English sportsman, diplomat and public figure, and Senator Borah of Idaho, may meet and get acquainted early next year for Lord Derby plans to visit the United States at that time.

MISTAKE FOUND ON TWO-DOLLAR BILL

RICHMOND (Va.) July 16. (Exclusive)—To Omer Ogilvie, manager of the University branch of the People's National Bank of Charlottesville at Charlottesville, Va., goes the distinction of being the first to discover an error in the recently issued new currency of the United States.

The error was found on the back of the new two-dollar note, which carries a picture of Thomas Jefferson on the front and a likeness of Monticello, his Virginia home, on the reverse.

Examination of the picture of Monticello reveals that it contains the image of two lions, one on each side of the veranda of the mansion. It is pointed out that these lions are in reality not on the grounds at Monticello. Nor were they there during the regime of Jefferson.

The figures were placed there by Mr. Levy after he purchased the property many years ago. During his ownership the lions were there but when the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation bought the estate, they were removed and it is thought they were sold at auction along with other relics from the house. The present whereabouts of the figures is not known.

That the newly wedded pair will be welcome in the Sproul family was made plain by A. E. Sproul, the girl's father, a commercial photographer.

"I don't know Peterson, in fact, have never heard of him before," Sproul said, "but he will be welcome in my home if Edith loved him enough to marry him. She is well educated and has good judgment. She has her own life to live and must live it as she chooses."

Cleveland Men Adjudged in Contempt of Court

Statement Scores Peril to Freedom of Press

CLEVELAND, July 17. (AP)—Louis B. Seltzer, editor of the Cleveland Press, and Carlton K. Matson, chief editorial writer, were given a stay of execution today by Appellate Judge Vickery after Common Pleas Judge Walther had held them in contempt of court and ordered them to serve thirty days in the County Jail and pay fines of $500 each.

Judge Vickery, reached at his home by Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War and counsel for the newspaper men, ordered their release under $1000 bond each pending an appeal.

Seltzer and Matson were permitted to leave the jail where they had been formally booked as prisoners. They issued the following formal statement:

"This is a plain case of freedom of the press to criticize court orders which are as lawless. The order, which is the crux of this case, was an order which purported to restrain an officer of the law from doing his sworn duty."

"Thirty days in jail and a fine of $500 is a small price to pay. If such a price must be paid, in the contempt involving such a principle."

An injunction was granted by Judge Walther to operators of the Thielstown race track restraining Sheriff Hanrahan from interfering with the use of the "contribution" system of betting, provided it is legal. The Sheriff took the stand that the system is illegal and that

San Francisco Corporation to Finance Families on Budget Plan

San Francisco, July 17. (Exclusive)—Two more installments and the baby is ours, is no longer a joke.

The formation of an organization to be known as the General Welfare Corporation for the purpose of financing medical and dental bills, allowing patients to pay on the installment plan, was announced here today.

Announcement was made by Dr. J. M. Toner, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, who bows to Chicago for the idea.

Therefore the order was not binding, and closed the track.

The press, in an editorial published the same day the injunction was granted and twice revised in later editions, declared the injunction either "monstrous" or "ridiculous," and accused Judge Walther of having been made the dupe of racing interests.

The judge instituted contempt proceedings, charging the editorial was libelous and contemptuous.

TAXATION TOPIC OF GOVERNORS

Aviation Also Gets Attention at Conference in East

Byrd Urges Need of Reforms in Levying Methods

Guggenheim Submits Five Air-Law Suggestions

NEW LONDON (CT.) July 17. (AP)—Taxation and aviation chiefly occupied the attention of the governors in their twenty-first annual conference here today. The principal addresses of the day were by Gov. Byrd of Virginia, Gov. Shafter of North Dakota, and Tax Commissioner Blodgett of Connecticut on taxation, and Harry F. Guggenheim of New York, president of the Daniel Guggenheim Fund for the Promotion of Aeronautics and Aviation.

Progress in tax reforms has been slow in the United States, Gov. Byrd said.

The work of revision and modernizing archaic systems of taxation has only begun in this country, he continued, and the highly satisfactory general property tax which should have been discarded years ago still is in general use in most of the States of the Union. State taxes generally are low in the general property tax plan, the Governor explained, but when local levies are laid upon the same property the rates always are high and when the local rates are applied to intangible personal property they are found to be confiscatory.

REALTY ASSESSMENTS

"The reason for this is that real estate is grossly underassessed in almost every State in the Union," he continued, "whereas intangible personal property, such as bonds and notes, is not equally underassessed if it is assessed at all, but such intangible personal property is assessed at its actual worth."

Intangibles are not declared for taxation by many people, he declared, because they cannot afford to return on them and tax authorities find it impossible to enforce unjust laws.

In face of such evils, Gov. Byrd said, some States are substituting the classified property tax for the general property tax segregation always involves classification, he explained, which provides for the setting apart of certain subjects of taxation for State taxation exclusively and of certain subjects for exclusive local taxation.

Gov. Shafter of North Dakota warned against encroachment by the Federal government on States' rights in gasoline taxation, pointing out the need by States of collections on gasoline for maintenance of highways and of the advantage the gas tax has in reducing local real estate taxes.

AVIATION SUGGESTIONS

"A Federal gasoline tax probably would start a reaction against the entire principal of taxation," he said. "Already $200,000,000 are collected annually by the States on this one form of taxation and an additional burden by the Federal government would bring on a reaction likely to have serious consequences."

Mr. Guggenheim speaking on aviation, made five specific recommendations: State and Federal aviation laws;

That the Federal government provide a comprehensive intensive weather service for aviation throughout the country; that the Federal government regulate operation of airplanes and movements of visitors at airports; that every State pass aviation legislation conforming with Federal laws; that every State take the initiative in developing a network of landing fields within their limits at ten-mile intervals and that every community with a population of between 1,000 and 5,000 inhabitants, should mark its name on at least one of its most prominent roofs.

NEW YORK, July 17. (AP)—The Southern Pacific Company today began suit to recover from the United States $1,446,534, asserted to have been paid under protest as income and excess profits tax for the year 1917.

The company also asked interest from May 17, 1920.

WORLD RACE BET TIED UP

Flying Swede Rambles in After Bronx Ice Man But Rules Fight Tangles $18,000 Wager

NEW YORK, July 18. (Exclusive)—Charles Olson, the "flying Swede," who celebrated the knitting of a broken back by climbing out of a hospital bed and challenging a Bronx ice man to a race around the world for a pot of $18,000, came rambling home today on the liner France. Tonight two earnest little groups—attendants and by water to Japan on the Empress of India. From that point on, he said, more than 40 per cent of his travel was by commercial air transport lines.

The "flying Swede" came trooping home almost a week behind the traveling refrigerator but Olson insisted today he had won because he had made the 23,802 miles from east to west in twenty-four days, twenty-one hours, thirty-five minutes.

The ice man came in from the west coast several days ago with a beard and a claim for elapsed time of twenty-seven days, seventeen hours, forty minutes. The victory hinges on interpretation of the rules, which provided that each racer must stick to regular scheduled vehicles of transportation. They were not permitted to charter any special vehicle.

Regardless of the outcome of the wager, Olson has a record surpassed by only two other globe-trotters and they were professionals. John Henry Mears and Capt. B. D. Collyer accomplished the round trip just a year ago in twenty-three days, fifteen hours, twenty-one minutes, but they were permitted to charter special transportation.

Olson said he went by rail to Chicago, by air to Los Angeles and Se-

Chamber Votes Confidence on Debt Proposals

Premier Forced to Bed Due to Debate Fatigue

Opponents of Ratification Seem to Lose Force

PARIS, July 17. (AP)—While Premier Poincaré was confined to his bed today with exhaustion and extreme fatigue from his strenuous efforts on behalf of the debt accords with America and Great Britain, the French Chamber of Deputies gave him a second vote of confidence, 330 to 238.

The vote came on the resolution of the Socialist Deputy Blum seeking subordination of the adoption of the Young plan to immediate evacuation of the Rhineland.

While the vote was being taken it was noted around that the Premier's physician had found a slight feverish condition, but said he was not in the least gravely ill. He prescribed twenty-four hours' complete rest.

Discussion of ratification of the debt settlement lacked the pugnarious spirit previously displayed by the opponents of unconditional ratification. These Deputies seemed depressed by the double defeat they received at the hands of Premier Poincaré and Foreign Minister Briand yesterday.

ARIZONAN SEES RIVER COURT TILT

Commissioner Declares California Never Will Recede from Position

PHOENIX, July 17. (AP)—Firm belief that California never will recede from her present position regarding the Colorado River problem and that as a result a tri-State agreement never will be formulated was expressed by John Mason Ross, member of the Arizona Colorado River Commission here today.

"If we cannot obtain an agreement, and I am firmly convinced that we never will," he said, "then we will go to the courts as a last resort and fight it out. In that event we will have the advantage that even if we get licked, and there are many phases of the legal side of the question which indicate we will win, we will have everything that the 'Swing-Johnson bill' gives us."

How we took the GUESS

From no 2 alike to every 2 the Same highest Quality

WHY didn't someone think of this before? Here it is 1929 and ice cream sodas still being made and served at thousands of fountains—by guess and by golly! Now listen to the story of Green Lantern Ice Cream Soda. A different story. A different Soda.

We asked thousands of people if they had ever tasted a thoroughly good ice cream soda. "Occasionally you get a good one," was the almost invariable reply.

"Which proves," we said among ourselves, "that ice cream soda can be good."

The scene shifts to our experimental kitchens. (Most certainly a reality, not simply for advertising purposes). And here we set about testing and tasting ice cream sodas. Trying out old recipes and methods; also concocting brand new recipes.

Finally we found THE recipe and THE method of mixing which all agreed were the best yet.

Then we called in the Green Lantern fountain attendants. "Here," we said, "is the exact recipe." "Here is the one and only way to make it." Just like school. Everybody practiced until everybody said, "I can do it, too."

Then we saw to it that all fountains had the same pure ingredients, the same high quality syrups and flavors. The new rich creamy Green Lantern Ice Cream (destined to be famous). Most important was the temperature, pressure and quality of the "fix water." (One of the secrets)

Most important, too, the serving. Sparkling glassware. Daintily served. Spodess fountains. Appetizing in every respect.

And now we're ready for you to try this better ice cream soda. Made the same, tastes the same, is the same at all Green Lantern Fountains. Your favorite flavor. Try one today for fun, for food, for refreshment. Then tell us what YOU think. Because we did it for YOU.

Heroic Figure of Martyr

Statue Made Possible by Many Contributions

MEXICALI, July 17. (Exclusive)—Honoring the memory of Gen. Alvaro Obregon, who met death at the hands of an assassin on July 17, one year ago, 3000 Lower California citizens stood with heads bared while their Governor, Gen. Abelardo L. Rodriguez, lifted the veil from a life-size bronze statue, erected as a tribute to the martyred President. The ceremony took place at 6 p.m. this evening in front of the territorial palace.

PLANES CIRCLE
During the preliminary ceremonies a squadron of Mexican battle planes which took part in the recent war against the rebels circled overhead in formation with black streamers trailing from the wing-struts.

Prof. Angel Abrego, superintendent of the Mexicali schools, made formal presentation of the statue in behalf of the people of Lower California who raised the funds for its purchase by popular subscription. Juan Hernandez, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who headed the committee which raised the funds, stated that $30,000 was contributed voluntarily by rich and poor alike.

The figure of Gen. Obregon is mounted on a pedestal of Mexican onyx and is illuminated at night by an electric display. Among the visiting guests who were seated on the platform with Gov. Rodriguez were Alejandro Lohbert, Mexican Consul-General at San Francisco, and members of the Governor's military staff and civil attaches; Juan R. Platt, general treasurer of the Mexican National Railways, and a number of Americans.

DEMPSEY THERE
Jack Dempsey, former champion of the prize ring, chartered a special plane to reach here from San Diego today but was forced to return before the ceremony owing to his theatrical contract which required his appearance on the coast this evening. Dempsey was a guest at the Obregon raze in Soqora only a short time before the general met his death.

Following the unveiling of the statue, city officials dedicated the new $100,000 municipal hospital, which recently was completed. Later in the evening the crowd assembled at the Territorial Aviation Field, where a new night lighting system was inaugurated.

For Fin, se trasladó Lord Derby y el senador Borah.

LONDRES, Julio 17.—El marqués de Derby, famoso deportista, diplomático y hombre público inglés, tendrá tal vez ocasión de conocer y tratar al senador Borah, de Idaho, a principios del año entrante, pues Lord Derby piensa visitar a los Estados Unidos para esa época.

Aquí se guarda memoria de que hace dos años Lord Derby invitó al senador a su casa de campo Knowsley Hall, cerca de Liverpool, y a que se quedara allí todo el tiempo que quisiera. El senador Borah no pudo aceptar esa invitación; pero dirigió al noble inglés una carta dándole las gracias por su finura.

Lord Derby pensaba en dirigirse a los Estados Unidos al comenzar la primavera; de ese modo podría presenciar las carreras de Belmont Park y el derby de Kentucky. Quien visita al senador Borah en Washington o Nueva York.

La última vez que cruzó el Atlántico Lord Derby fue hace treinta y seis años, para acompañar a su padre, entonces gobernador general del Canadá, a una visita oficial a Winnipeg.

El marqués de Derby (los ingleses pronuncian "Darbi") tuvo un encuentro rotundo con el senador Borah en la primavera de 1927. "Hay un político presuntuoso", dijo Lord Derby en un discurso ante la cámara de comercio de Manchester, "que, según parece, no ha tenido siempre por otros. Me refiero al senador Borah, a quien invito a venir a este país, si quiere dispensarnos una hora, y a permanecer aquí cuanto tiempo desee."

Los del Pathfinder Viajeros en Le Bourget.

LE BOURGET (Francia), Julio 17.—El avión transatlántico norteamericano, Pathfinder, con el capitán Lewis A. Vancey y Roger Williams a bordo, aterrizó esta tarde en Le Bourget, procedente de Roma.

El Pathfinder tomó tierra de un modo perfecto, a unas cuantas yardas del sitio donde el coronel Charles A. Lindbergh remató su vuelo histórico hace dos años.

Los Habitantes de la Luna Pueden Ver los Cohetes.

WORCESTER (Massachusetts) Julio 17.—Un cohete con el que experimentaba el profesor Robert H. Goddard, de la Universidad de Clark, con el propósito de dispararlo contra la luna, estalló esta tarde en su estación experimental sita en lugar aislado de Worcester, y la detonación se oyó en muchas millas a la redonda. Felizmente no hubo desgracias personales.

El cohete tenía nueve pies de largo y veintiocho pulgadas de diámetro; era todo de metal y estaba lleno de varias cargas de pólvora destinadas a imprimirle empujes sucesivos. Fue disparado desde una torre de cuarenta pies de alto. A unos 300 pies de elevación sobre el suelo estalló el cohete con formidable estrépito.

NOTAS LOCALES

La señorita Corbin Fue Hallada en un Tren de Ferrocarril.

Otro de los llamados misterios, que con frecuencia conmueven a la colonia pelicular de Hollywood, quedó esclarecido ayer por la luz de la realidad, pues se supo de manera cierta que Virginia Lee Corbin, actriz de la pantalla, de 19 años de edad, se halla en Nueva York, y ni la desaparición, ni, mucho menos, ha sido plagada.

El misterio consistió en la circunstancia de que no pudo asistir a una cita que tenía con su abogado, David Hill, para el lunes próximo, a fin de discutir ciertos asuntos judiciales pendientes entre ella y su madre.

La señora Helen Keyser, que fue nombrada su tutora, manifestó que la señorita Corbin había juzgado este el tiempo más oportuno para ir a Nueva York, y hacia allá se fue la noche del último sábado. Como es ya mayor de edad, no ve la señora Keyser por qué no pueda ir a Nueva York si así le viene en gana.

No hubo ninguna mala inteligencia entre la señora Keyser y la señorita Corbin. La primera recibió una carta de segunda mano en el tren durante el viaje al Este.

CHAMP DEFENDS CROWN TONIGHT

Light-heavyweight Title at Stake in New York

Tommy May be Weakened by Making Weight Limit

Critics Concede Challenger Chance for Kayo

BY ALAN J. GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, July 17. (AP)—Jersey Jimmy Braddock, to whom not so long ago a crossing of the Hudson River was as much of an event as a crossing of the Atlantic to a seasoned globe-trotter, will ferry over in style tomorrow night to fight a fellow-Irishman, Tommy Loughran, for the light-heavyweight championship of the world. It seems just a short while ago that youthful Jimmy, his handlers in big lettered jerseys of emerald green, confined the exercise of his potent right hand to the battling areas of Newark and Jersey City.

GREAT RECORD

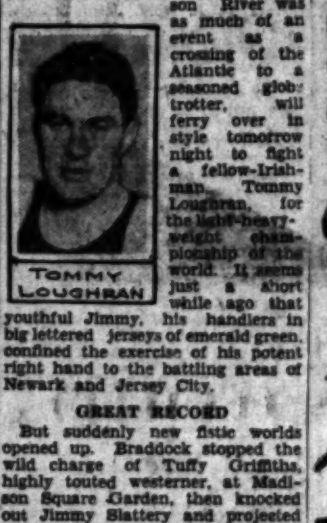

But suddenly new fists worlds opened up. Braddock stopped the wild charge of Tuffy Griffiths, highly touted westerner, at Madison Square Garden, then knocked out Jimmy Slattery and projected himself quickly into the spotlight. By more than a few critics, the 23-year-old Jersey man will be conceded a good chance to tap the elusive chin of champion Loughran tomorrow evening and lift the crown.

The fight is for fifteen rounds to a decision. The distance should favor Braddock, who is a natural light-heavyweight and not handicapped, as is Loughran, by the effort of training down to the 175-pound limit. Although he probably will enter the ring a slight favorite at odds of six to five, the champion will need all his boxing skill and speed to effect the attack of the rugged, hard-hitting youngster from across the river. Braddock has improved rapidly within the past year, under clever handling, while Loughran has demonstrated consistently that he is no longer at his best at the light-heavyweight limit. He admits this himself, also predicting that he will easily outbox his slower and comparatively inexperienced opponent.

TOMMY BARRED

If Loughran should lose the title, it will not be surprising to see him immediately enter the quest for

TRIPLE STEAL FEATURES ANGEL WIN OVER ACORNS

Fred Haney Pillers Home in Third; Oaks Fail to Get Runner Past First Off Seraph Hurler

BY BOB RAY

Ed Baecht, whom the Angel players have dubbed Jack Keefe because he looks so much if not acts like Ring Lardner's famous comic strip pitcher, put on a great balancing act yesterday at Wrigley Field, but at that found enough time to shut out Ivan Howard's Oaks, 7 to 0.

Baecht limited the ambitious Acorns to three scattered singles, two of them infield raps to Haney, and had an easy time turning back the boys from Oakland while evening up the series.

You've probably seen guys on the stage who could dance and play a violin at the same time, but Mr. Baecht has a combination act all his own. Aside from pitching, the big Angel right-hander, who was cast off by the Phillies this year, has to balance a size No. 6 cap on a size No. 7 head, which is considerable of a stunt in itself. Baecht was just as proficient at cap juggling as he was at his pitching and not once did he let the understated chaplain slip off his head. To prove that he was something else besides a pitcher and a cap juggler, Ed poked out a timely double in the fourth inning to drive over two runs and help win his own contest. All in all it was a big day for Jack Keefe's double.

As an additional attraction, Jack Leffell's athletes provided a thrill for the cash customers in the fourth inning, when they pulled off a triple steal. Fred Haney, the league's leading base stealer, engineered the three-way steal, pilfering home while Lou McEvoy was busily engaged in the business of winding up before pitching to Walter Berger. Jigger Stairs and "Spider" Webb, the other base occupants, completed the big catch robbery by meandering to third and second while Haney

MRS. HILL PICKED TO WIN MISSISSIPPI GOLF PLAY

DENVER (Colo.) July 17. (AP)—Shooting a spectacular 73, only two above regulation par for the Denver Country Club course, Mrs. O. S. Hill, defending women's trans-Mississippi golf champion, today was installed as the favorite to repeat her 1928 performance. Her score was one of the lowest made in championship competition and it was good enough to eliminate Mrs. C. W. Johnson of the Omaha Field Club, 8 and 7. The Nebraska woman failed to win a single hole and was 6 down at the turn.

Although failing to match the stroke score of the title-holder, Miss Marion Turpie of New Orleans, the medalist, continued

Van Ryn and Allison Selected to Oppose Germans in Doubles Match of Davis Play

BERLIN, July 17. (AP)—While Germany rested all its hopes in the hands of its young sensations, Daniel Frenz and Hans Moldenhauer, the United States tonight definitely selected Bill Tilden and Frank Hunter to play the singles and Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, the doubles in the interzone Davis Cup tennis final against the Germans this week-end.

Disregarding the doubles combination of Heinz Landmann and Heinrich Kleinschrotz which lost in the series with England, the German strategists sprang a surprise by naming Frenz and Moldenhauer to carry the burden in doubles as well as singles, when the exact line-ups were announced tonight, a day earlier than had been expected.

As a result of the draw made immediately after the line-ups were

JOHNNY DOEG TRIUMPHS IN EASTERN NET PLAY

BROOKLINE (Mass.) July 17. (AP)—Seven of the seeded players in the annual Longwood Bowl singles tennis championship were able to survive today's third-round matches on the turf courts at the Longwood Cricket Club.

The eighth, E. M. Brack, Jr. of Boston, who was seeded last, was eliminated in straight sets by W. D. Evans of Princeton University, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3.

John Doeg, Santa Monica, Cal., defeated G. H. Perkins, Boston, 6-2, 6-0, 6-1. The doubles contained a pair of unexpected victories and in the women's play Sarah Fairfax of Brookline, the national girls' champion, went down before the accurate racket of Mary Grief of Kansas City, 7-5, 6-3. Another upset came when Marjorie Gladman of Santa Monica, Cal., bowed to Margaret Blake of Lenox, 6-2, 8-6.

Josephine Cruickshank, Santa Ana, Cal., defeated Mianne Fairfax, Brookline, 6-1, 6-1.

Kenneth Appel of Orange, N. J., and Bradshaw Harrison of Oregon University, who were good enough yesterday to eliminate the Hartford (Conn.) team of H. H. Hyde and Lee Wiley, seeded third, today defeated such rugged opponents as Doeg and Lawrence Hall, of Orange, N. J., 6-4, 6-5, by twice breaking through the Californian's service.

The three seeded teams in today's play were able to advance into the quarter-finals without serious mishaps.

THOMPSON: How do you size up this security situation?

OLD-TIMER: That's a man-sized question.

THOMPSON: But you must have formed some opinion, with all of your experience.

OLD-TIMER: For my own guidance, yes.

THOMPSON: And they are...

OLD-TIMER: They are that present high yields in fixed income securities must be regarded by the big fellows as too good to last, else they wouldn't be using short-term issues for their major financing.

THE OPINION that present yields of 6% to 7%, in seasoned, sound securities may not last is general among shrewd investors. As a result, such securities are in demand... especially those which guarantee these favorable yields for long terms.

Ralph G. Wolff First Lien Participation Certificates and Certified First Trust Deeds will assure you these yields of 6½ and 7% for three, five, ten years to come. Your name and address on the coupon below will bring full details.

"Investigate before you invest" applies to the investment of money as well as to the investment of time. Before The Ralph G. Wolff Company recommends any security to its clients, it first carefully investigates and satisfies itself of the soundness of the investment.

DRIFT ON STOCK MARKET UNEVEN

$100,000,000 in the same three months of 1928.

Palm implement shares were heavily bought in response to the new advance in grain prices. Case Threshing and International Harvester were bid up about 17 and 7 points, respectively, to new high ground.

A number of industrials and specialties were buoyant. Commercial Solvents rising more than 14 points to still another record, and Air Reduction jumping 9 points to a new peak. Food shares were stimulated by further merger talk. Per Milk advanced 8 points on rumors that it was being sought by Standard Brands, only to lose half its gain when the rumor was denied. Remying Rand, Fleischmann, Purdy Bakers and Kraft Foods all at new highs.

Weakness in much important shares as American Can, United States Steel, Consolidated Gas, New York Central, Western Union and General Electric, which lost 3 or 3 points, had a rather dampening effect upon speculative enthusiasm.

The news that William Fox had been injured in an automobile accident was used to start a bear drive on Fox Film, which was depressed nearly 4 points.

The advance in grain amounted to more than 8 cents a bushel, carrying prices more than 15 cents above the level a year ago. Cotton advanced nearly 3 cents. Cotton also went forward, with gains of about $2.50 to $3 a bale in response to unfavorable weather and reports of poor condition.

Eczema in Pimples on Scalp. Lost Hair. Cuticura Heals.

"The eczema started with little itchy pimples on my scalp. Later it formed big watery blisters, and when they broke water ran down my face, causing the trouble to spread. It got so bad that I lost most of my hair. I slept very little on account of the irritation. "I tried different remedies but they were all in vain. I had been about two months before I began using Cuticura from my mother and in about three weeks it was all gone. I was completely cured." GIFTS SHOWER AIR HEROES

Mendell and Reinhart Receive New Airplane and Medals, Besides Other Honors

Loren Mendell and R. B. Reinhart, world champion endurance flyers, were kept almost as busy yesterday receiving honors which continued to shower upon them as they were just a week ago while still making air history.

The climax of the day's events which started with an early repast in their honor at the breakfast club, came at the Culver City Airport from where their epochal flight was conducted when they formally were presented with a new Buhl airplane.

These ceremonies coupled with their five appearances at Loew's State Theater and concluded with an appearance at the Biltmore last night, kept the new champions busy from 8 a.m. until after midnight.

MEDALS AWARDED

At the breakfast repast the flyers were presented with gold medals of value similar to the one given the crew of the Army plane, Question Mark. They also were made life members in the Adventures of the World Club.

The trip from the breakfast club to the Culver City Airport was made in the Goodyear blimp, the Volunteer. On their arrival at the scene of their recent triumph, they were presented with their new Buhl plane and its Wright J-5 motor.

SPEED-BOAT RACE RECEIVES GOLD WATCH

Sharing the honors of the morning with Loren Mendell and R. B. Reinhart, Ralph Snoddy, winner of the Duke of York trophy on the Thames River, was presented yesterday morning at the breakfast club with a gold watch by James Talbot, Jr., and Harry A. Miller and associates; and the prophecy was made that Snoddy, with Talbot's new $50,000 Miller-powered boat, will win the trophy from the Harmsworth trophy from Oak Wood at Detroit on August 31, next.

Collection Fee Suspect Seized

Accused of obtaining $10,000 for collection fees, James A. Spates, head of the Corporation Analytical Bureau, was arrested last night at his office at Fifth and Spring streets. He was booked on charge of violating City Ordinance No. 8306, which forbids operating a collection agency without a license.

Detective Lieutenant Swann and Marshall of the Central bureau detail made the arrest. Swann was requested to take action by the Better Business Bureau. He charged that Spates sent a circular letter to investors in a certain stock telling them the company in which they invested is defunct and offering for 10 per cent to recover all they invested. Swann agents that Spates obtained $10,000 from fifty persons in this manner.

Dr. Wood is a son of Mrs. Morris Friedman of Sierra Madre, who went East to attend the ceremony. He is a graduate of the University of California, received his Ph. D. at Cornell, and taught for two years at Stanford University.

For the past two years he has been a lecturer at Princeton University and in the fall will return there as an associate professor in the department of philosophy.

Miss Jennings was graduated from Cornell with honors several years ago. She is 23 years of age, and Wood is 27.

WESTERN ART HELD IN ERROR

University Club Speaker Declares Chinese Work True to Life and Nature

Western art and the painters of Europe and America are wrong, their paintings are photographic and their perspective is false, in the eyes of Dr. William B. Pettus, who addressed members of the University Club last night on "The Art of China." Chinese painters, Dr. Pettus declared, even though their work is without shadows and generally made up of lines, give a true picture of life and nature.

"A hint to the imagination is enough," Dr. Pettus said in describing the suggestive manner of the old-time Chinese artists, "and although to the uncultured western eye Chinese roll pictures may seem grotesque, they are in reality the true art."

Dr. Pettus said he often has been challenged for his evident Chinese favoritism and answered "America is my mother but China is my sweetheart."

The lecture was illustrated with a number of paintings said to be from the T'ang, Ming and Sung dynasties, a part of the collection of Gen. Mumtaz which has been offered for sale to Los Angeles county.

Bruce Findlay Heads Chamber Exploitation

The appointment of Bruce A. Findlay as director of exploitation and public relations for the Chamber of Commerce was announced yesterday by Secretary Arnold. Mr. Findlay has a wide experience gained during the years which he served as assistant superintendent of schools here and later as superintendent of the Broadway Department Store.

William M. Oreskbaum, former manager of the chamber department now in Mr. Findlay's charge, has been appointed to an important position in handling outside contacts for the chamber and also will assist communities of the county in exploitation work and in generally giving publicity to the industry and activities of their particular center.

LOW FLYING AT PORT WILL BE PREVENTED

Low flying by pilots of airplanes in the harbor district will not be permitted, it was indicated yesterday when Asst. U. S. Atty. Peterson detailed an inspector to the harbor to investigate reports that planes recently have been flying much lower than is permitted. The danger to shipping and to pedestrians was mentioned yesterday and it was stated that the Federal laws regarding low flying will be followed strictly.

... & find the NEW CALIFORNIA of prosperity!

San Diego is delightful! Right in the heart of town you'll find the beautiful Old World towers and lily pool shown in this picture—they are a feature of America's most beautiful, and third largest, park!

And the blue ocean! You can scarcely realize what it means, just to see it—from nearly every street and doorway—illimitable waters tossing to the horizon—dove-colored at dawn, azure-blue at noon, and flaming at dusk with the reflected glory of vivid sunset!

Here is Old Spain! Here, too, is the "Today" of a sparkling, fast-growing, modern American city. Here is California's oldest Mission! Here, beautifully preserved, Ramona's Marriage Place and the famous old Wishing Well. Nearby, Old Mexico—languorous, historic—with the added attraction of smart, up-to-date club life.

San Diego is a treasure chest, full to overflowing with all the poetry, color and amusement to be found anywhere in California.

Business Activity, too!

There is another side of this picture—the unmistakable evidence of business progress and development. The harbor, one of the three great deep-water harbors on the Pacific Coast, is picturesque and important. You'll see the flags of all nations at the mastsheads of steamers, freighters, private yachts and innumerable small craft, all adding to the ever-growing tonnage in and out of San Diego harbor.

Further up the bay, the grey hulls of Uncle Sam's Navy loom up. You see them steaming out to target practice, smokestacks belching, radios buzzing, guns swinging into action—it's a great sight!

Here, also, is the home base of the U. S. Eleventh Naval District and thirty-five million dollar's worth of Government naval and marine buildings and equipment, because this is "the shortest thermometer in the world"—with the maximum number of "flying days."

Come—see for yourself!

And to San Diego we invite you. You are going to find much to see and to interest you, because it is truly a city of beauty and opportunity.

A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

As Tarzan entered the temple, he was distinctly aware of many eyes upon him. He heard a rustling in the shadows. One room had seven pillars and many carved decorations of solid gold. The floor of another was of the precious metal. His warriors huddled together, begging to be taken back to the sunlight, and fearful of dead spirits in the darkness.

Tarzan laughed, bidding them run back into the fresh air. Some of the warriors obeyed with speed. But Busuli and others hesitated, torn between loyalty for their king and superstitious fear of the unknown. Then, quite unexpectedly, occurred that which decided them. Out of silence, close by, rang the same hideous shriek that had started them.

As one man the warriors turned and fled through the empty halls. Tarzan-of-the-Apes stood left alone, a grim smile upon his lips, waiting for the unseen enemy to pounce upon him. But again silence reigned. Then he wheeled and passed on into the very depths of the temple, coming to a rude barred door. Again the shriek of warning rang out almost beside him.

Perhaps beyond lay the secret of the treasure store! As he placed his shoulder to the door the shrieking was repeated continuously. Before his giant strength, creaking, it swung slowly open. Tarzan, feeling before him with his spear, entered the Stygian gloom. Suddenly the door closed behind him, and at the same time hands clutched him from every direction out of the darkness.

extreme youth of Allen Ellis, 17-year-old Fresno youth under sentence to hang tomorrow at San Quentin for the murder of Francis Wilson at Fresno, June 13, 1928, won him from the gallows yesterday when Gov. Young commuted his sentence to life imprisonment without parole.

Reviewing the case, Gov. Young found there were no extenuating circumstances as far as the crime was concerned, "unless the youth was the defendant and the effect of the defendant with two other boys was considered as such."

MERCY DOUBTFUL
The view of the atrocious nature of the murder and the necessity of preventing such acts of violence by these boys committed this case and it easy to grant this commutation, despite the fact that the youth was not given a chance to defend himself. I am further convinced by the fact that the jury, composed of the District Attorney and the District Attorney's office, and the death penalty in this case.

Without I cannot take the view of the law, of this boy to hang if there is a possibility that he is a few days more than 17 years of age at the time of the crime.

Gov. Young declared in part of his statement, based from the office of the Attorney General, with Bill Kreiger and Lowell Kreiger, who were with him at the time of the crime.

Gov. Young's statement commuted the death sentence of the youth in San Quentin and his name in a hospital for the insane today by commutation of a sentence.

Public Improvements to be Dropped This Year

San Diego, July 17.—The city council today voted to reduce the city's expenses for the coming year by $23.33, or 10 per cent, from the $233,333 estimated by the auditor. The council also voted to drop all public improvement projects for the coming year, except for the $24.44 needed for the city's general expenses. He will wear the royal purple as King Louis XI of France in Paramount's production of "The Vagabond King," based on the novel by Maurice Maeterlinck. The role of the crafty monarch, who is to be played by Heggie, is a part of the film which is being directed by Del Ruth. The film is being produced by Paramount Pictures. Heggie is a well-known stage actor who has played many leading roles in Broadway productions. He is now being offered a chance to play a leading role in a major motion picture. This is a significant step in his career and is a testament to his talent and popularity.

ROY DEL RUTH GOES EAST ON ASSIGNMENT

The choice assignment of directing "Hold Everything," Broadway musical show, purchased by Warner Brothers, has fallen to Roy Del Ruth, it was announced yesterday. Characteristically, Del Ruth has left no time in starting work. He left for New York last night, accompanied by Robert Lord, staff director of the show. The assignment is a significant one for Del Ruth, who has been working in the film industry for many years. He is now being given the chance to direct a major Broadway musical show. This is a testament to his talent and experience in the industry.

Estelle Plans Tour

When Estelle Taylor returns from a tour of the United States, which she is undertaking this morning at the Good Samaritan Hotel, she is going to rehearse a new vaudeville act. Jack Dempsey's success with his act, seen at the Paramount Theatre, may have inspired Estelle. At any rate, she has already secured an act, and up until the time the trip to the hospital, she will probably go out on the Orpheum circuit about September 1.

Benjamin Glazer, recently released as head of sound-production activities for Pathé, is to arrive in international talking-picture interests on a program of musical and all-day subjects.

This was disclosed yesterday upon the eve of Glazer's departure by air for New York and on the De la France for Paris. Although his trip has been announced as a vacation, Glazer will devote himself while abroad to conferring with European film leaders on the co-operative production of films.

A man of many talents, a playwright, a scenarist, an expert on sound production—Glazer will return to the United States in about nine weeks according to his information, to forego executive activity and to write and direct his own material.

HOLLYWOOD BOUTIQUE
"STYLE CENTER OF THE WORLD"

By YVONNE of Hollywood

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Public will be guests of honor at a public reception given at the new Hollywood Knickerbocker Apartment Hotel on Var street just north of the boulevard. The management cordially invites residents of Hollywood and their friends, and those wishing to become residents of Hollywood, to take this opportunity to personally show the charms of the largest and most luxuriously furnished apartment-house of the film capital. Whether or not you are interested in seeking a new apartment home you are equally welcome. The slogan of the Hollywood Knickerbocker is "Your home for a year or a day."

The return of feminine curves coincident with the banishment of the boyish figure is largely responsible for the new silhouettes for fall and many smart features attached thereto. The bag, costume jewelry, gloves, hosiery, scarves, should be chosen with the idea of creating the perfect ensemble either by harmonizing with the whole or providing the proper color accent in relation to the rest of the costume.

A woman is no smarter than her accessories. Take thought, therefore, for the little things, the details which make or mar your appearance. The bag, costume jewelry, gloves, hosiery, scarves, should be chosen with the idea of creating the perfect ensemble either by harmonizing with the whole or providing the proper color accent in relation to the rest of the costume.

Lace and chiffon are the favored mediums for interpreting the new long-skirted, rather high-waisted silhouette for evening which has been evolved by Paris couturiers after much skirmishing in the region of the waistline. Giving one the appearance of being very thin, whether or no, and abridging the waist as it is to waist, only certain types can wear it effectively.

Knit ensembles are always smart and the new fall styles on display at The Knit Shop, 6848 S. Hollywood Blvd., are especially so. Three pieces they are, coat, skirt and slip-over sweater, trend effects predominating.

The Chicago Girl—newest and loveliest of all permanent waves, is featured exclusively by Charles at the Ida Bell Beauty Shop, 6706 Hol. Blvd.

At the Robertson Company, that "Friendly Store" with the happy, helpful atmosphere, a July clearance sale fairly teeming with wonderful bargains is in progress. All Hollywood, as well as surrounding communities, anticipate this semiannual event, for store-wide reductions of regular Robertson quality stock prevail—in some instances, at less than cost. New fall merchandise specially priced is also being shown. The magnitude of this occasion will be evident the moment you enter the store—6738 Hollywood Boulevard.

The enhancement of one's own personality by means of clothes chosen to suit one's type is surely a matter of self-analysis and self-appreciation, coupled with intelligence in selecting only garments worn by similar types of accredited fashion standing. "That is all very well," you may say, "but suppose I am just average in appearance and there is nothing particularly striking about me to classify as a 'social type'." These are a thousand similar questions pertaining to the art of expressing one's individuality through perfect grooming are being answered in New York by a style bureau recently established for that very purpose. Expert advice in the relation of the individual to color, fabrics, lines and textures as well as consultation in regard to hair dressing, make-up, etc., is given. Such authentic information, presented by a personnel expertly trained, has limited possibilities for building a clothes consciousness so definite that every woman will learn instinctively to select the best that is procurable and suited to type.

The printed chiffon frock of formal or informal character, exploited though it has been, shows no abatement in popularity with the women of fashion. Wherever the smart feminine world is gathered one finds it proudly holding its own against all newer intrusions. There could be nothing lovelier for summer evenings than the printed chiffon frock in subtle opalescent hues, with its little cones to match, or in rich dark designs for afternoon wear.

Thin straps, delicate piping and slender heels are features of the newer evening slippers. While crepe de chine dyed a solid color to match the gown is still popular for evening shoes, a newer fashion is found in delicate brocades with backgrounds which can be dyed to harmonize.

The crepe de chine slipper with matching handbag is considered very smart with the typical summer afternoon costume.

"We are busy Indians—Watch our smoke!" is the motto of the American Indian Art Shop, 6441 Hollywood Blvd., and truly the handicraft of these skilled Indians is worth going miles to see.

The three fashionable "Pig" Whistle Cakes in Hollywood provide an ideal rendezvous for the thousands who daily throng the boulevard. At almost any hour of the day or night, one may see interesting groups of people vying their way toward the sign of the famous "Little Pig." Besides being enjoyable places to dine, they are noted for their dainty pastries, fine candies and loaves.

HUMANE SOCIETY GROUPS PREPARE FOR COURT FRAY

Possibility that a humane society may have a fertile field to work in preventing cruelty of some sort from being perpetrated on one or another of the factions that exist within its ranks was seen yesterday when the affairs of the University District Humane Society were taken before the court.

W. E. Dillon, president of the society and spokesman for one of the two factions, filed an application for a writ of mandamus seeking the return of the society's seal and records by Mary M. Colburn, secretary and treasurer. The organization is engaged in the prevention of cruelty to children and animals in the Saville district, and was organized in 1927.

Dillon asserts that a group of new officers was elected duly. The faction opposing him says they were not duly elected. Mrs. I. E. Latrelle, one of the leaders of the faction opposing Dillon and his cohorts, was very emphatic in stating that "Dillon isn't even a member of the organization."

The time for hearing on the application is to be set next week.

CHARLES CONNER SOUGHT

In a letter received yesterday, Mrs. Charlotte Conner of Geneva, Ill., requested The Times to announce that her son, Charles Frederick Conner, is missing from his home and is believed to be in Southern California. The mother is anxious for him to communicate with her at once.

FORMER JUDGE WOOD RAPIDLY RECOVERING

Inaccurate reports of the illness of former Superior Court Judge John Perry Wood were cleared up yesterday when Dr. Elliott Alden, his personal physician, announced he is well on the road to recovery and shortly will be strong enough to be removed to his home. The former jurist and former City Attorney of Pasadena, has been a patient at the Hollywood Hospital for about ten days, the victim of pneumonia and not suffering a nervous breakdown as originally announced through the press.

MARRIED LIFE DELINKED

Disaffection with married life, and a desire for other things resulted in Gladys A. Fields leaving him. Munroe Fields testified yesterday in his suit for divorce before Superior Judge Yankovich. He was granted a decree.

Assure a carefree old age through a Living Trust

IN YOUR "summertime" of prosperity you should prepare for the "winter" of life. While you are successful, establish a living trust for your own benefit, and have the deep satisfaction of knowing that you will have ease and comfort when you desire to retire from business life. Every man who thoughtfully considers his family should build up an estate, separate and distinct, from his business. Thousands have done this through the medium of the living trust—money and property placed with a large responsible institution under a form of trust agreement for the benefit of the trustor and his beneficiaries. Complete information relative to this type of trust will be given gladly by any of our trust officers.
